The speaker on the occasion was Prof. Geo. B. Cromer, LL.D., the distinguished and successful president of Newberry College. Dr. Cromer's address showed individuality of thought and careful arrangement. He spoke in an easy and attractive way which appealed to his hearers. The subject of his address was "The Man and the Mass."

Happy Time in Old Town.
"We felt very happy," writes R. N. Bevil, Old Town, Va., "when Buckle's Arnica Salve wholly cured our daughter of a bad case of scalp head." It delights all who use it for Cuts, Corns, Burns, Bruises, Boils, Ulcers, Eruptions, Infertility for Piles. Only 25c. at all druggists.

One Minute Late.

It makes no difference whether you were one minute or one hour late, if you missed the train. Better get there on time. Colds lead to coughs, coughs to pneumonia and consumption; therefore, it is important to check a cold before it reaches the lungs. Perry Davis' Painkiller will positively break a cold inside of twenty-four hours. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis.

BASEBALL.
Newberry to meet Edgefield on the College Diamond this afternoon.

All lovers of baseball will miss a treat if they fail to attend the game at the College park this afternoon at 5 o'clock. The Newberry boys have arranged two games with the Edgefield team, and the first game will be played this afternoon.

Our boys have been practicing hard for the past week, and with such a battery as Simpson and Cabiness they are not expected to lose.

The second game will be played Saturday. We hope the citizens will turn out and enjoy the game.

THE JUNIOR CONTEST.
The Night Who Will Contest for the Memorial Medal Chosen.

The preliminary contest by the junior class to select eight orators to enter the contest for the medal on Monday evening of commencement week was held in the college chapel yesterday afternoon.

M. A. Abrams—The Muskiet as a Social Force.
F. G. Crou—Unhonored Heroes.
O. G. Kirkpatrick—Our Dangers.
G. C. Merchant—Echoes of History.

J. H. Shealy—Patriotism vs. Patriotism.

B. C. Tavis—Rewards of Education in North Carolina.
R. H. Wis—He Who Has an Eagle's Aim May Have an Eagle's Wing.

Violent Cancer Cured.
Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by druggist G. W. Robert, of Elizabeth, W. Va. An old man there had long suffered with what good doctors pronounced incurable cancer. They believed because hopeless till he used Electric Bitters, and applied Buckle's Arnica Salve, which treatment completely cured him. When Electric Bitters are used to expel bilious, kidney and micro-poisons at the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power, blood diseases, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish. Bitters 50c, Salve 25c. at all druggists.

The origin of the fire is unknown, and there was no insurance.

The barn together with two fine mules, one horse, two good wagons and harness, corn and provender, were a total loss, and a third mule was badly burned.

Mr. Kohn's loss is about $750.

Complimentary to Justice Pope.

The following complimentary notice to Justice Y. J. Pope, of this city, is taken from The State of the 4th inst.

The disability of Chief Justice McIver—deeply regretted by all the people of South Carolina—devolved upon the Hon. Y. J. Pope, as the senior associate justice, the duty of presiding in the supreme court during the entire April term just ended. In this relation Mr. Justice Pope exhibited in a high degree the qualifications of a presiding judge—courtesy, readiness, fairness, and aptitude for the dispatch of business. Those members of the bar whose engagements brought them in the court at any time during the term will heartily unite in the opinion thus expressed.

My little son had an attack of whooping cough and was threatened with pneumonia, but for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we would have had a serious time of it. It also saved him from several severe attacks of croup.—H. J. Strickfaden, editor World-Herald, Fair Haven, Wash. For sale by W. E. Pelham & Son.

SUMTER'S FIREMEN'S TOURNEY.

Programme With Prizes Arranged—The Probable Contestants.

Sumter, June 3.—The arrangements for the firemen's tournament on June 25th and 26th are going forward in the most satisfactory manner possible. The programme has been arranged, the rules governing the contest adopted and the prizes agreed upon.

The programme and prize list is as follows:

Parade—Wednesday, June 25th, at 10:30 a. m.

Quick Haten Contest—Wednesday, June 25th, at 3:30 p. m. First prize $100. Second prize $50.

Grab Reel Race—Immediately after the hand reel race. First prize $50.

Hose Wagon Contest—Thursday, June 26th at 4 p. m. First prize $200. Second prize $50. Third prize $25.

From the above it is seen that $750 will be given in prizes. Few definite entries have been made so far, but it is almost certain that the following teams will take part in the contests: Two from Charleston; two or three from Columbia; two from Sumter and one each from the following towns: Florence, Camden, Newberry, Winnsboro, Greenville, Fayetteville, N. C., Goldsboro, N. C.—Special to the State.

The Excelsior Fire Company is practicing daily with their hand reel team, and will enter the hand reel contests, and count on entering a winning team. They are also making every effort to get their hose wagon here in time to enter the hose wagon contests. Should they accomplish what they have in view and succeed in entering with the team they are counting on, we don't believe they can be best in the State.

COL. CARVER RANDALL DEAD.

An Old and Honored Citizen of Pendleton—Was 82 Years Old.

Col. Carver Randall, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of the county, died at his home at Pendleton on Wednesday. He was 82 years old, and his death was the result of old age and general debility. He leaves a wife but no children. The interment took place in the Presbyterian cemetery at Pendleton Thursday afternoon.

Col. Randall was a native of Newberry county but moved to Pendleton about the beginning of the war. He was an uncle of Dr. A. P. Johnstone of Anderson and of Col. George Johnstone of Newberry, and a brother-in-law of E. G. Evans of Anderson. He had been a member of the Presbyterian church for more than 60 years and during the greater part of that time was a ruling elder, and was noted for his many virtues and good works—Anderson People's Advocate, 2nd.

DAVIS DAY IN NEWBERRY.

Meeting of James D. Nance Camp—crosses of Honor conferred on several Veterans—A Magnificent Address by President Cromer.

The anniversary of the birthday of Jefferson Davis was appropriately observed in Newberry on Tuesday.

A meeting of the James D. Nance Camp had been called and the Southern Cross of Honor was conferred by the Drayton Rutherford Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, on many old veterans. The crosses were there for fifty two soldiers who had applied, but several were not present on that occasion to receive them.

The feature of the impressive exercises was the magnificent address by Dr. Geo. B. Cromer, in delivering the Crosses. He spoke eloquently and forcibly, bringing out the fact that the cause for which the South fought from 1861 to 1865 had not been lost, but that what local self-government the American people now enjoy was saved by that conflict. The address was a fine one, and the court house was well filled with citizens anxious to hear it.

Saved From an Awful Fate.

"Everybody said I had consumption," writes Mrs. A. M. Shields, of Chambersburg, Pa. "I was so low after six months of severe sickness, caused by Hay Fever and Asthma, that few thought I could get well, but I learned of the marvelous merit of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, used it, and was completely cured." For desperate Throat and Lung Diseases it is the safest cure in the world, and is infallible for Coughs, Colds and Bronchial Affections. Guaranteed bottles 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists.

Put Up the Test.

We back up all we say about "Clifton" flour. Back it up first with our goods, and second, with our guarantee. We have made some pretty strong statements about the quality of "Clifton" flour. If we can prove all we say, you can hardly afford not to use "Clifton." Come in under our guarantee and put us to the test. Bransford Mills, Owensboro, Ky.

AN OUTRAGE.

A Lady's Name Used to Victimize the Press And Deceive the Public—A Serious Offense—Young Boland Still Lives.

The following is taken from The Columbia State of the 3rd inst., which will explain a death notice which appeared in this paper of last Tuesday:

"In The State yesterday morning there was a brief account of the sudden death of young Claud R. Boland, an 18 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Boland. In the advertising columns there was a funeral notice. Both were without foundation in fact, calling in the first place for an explanation and in the second for such legal steps as will protect the press and public from any such impositions in the future.

In Columbia many families have a practice of sending a note to the office requesting a funeral notice to be inserted when a death occurs in the family. Such requests are always complied with.

"On Sunday night about 11:15 o'clock a young man entered the office and presented the following note:

"Mr. Editor: Please put the following funeral notice in the morning paper. You can word it better than I can. Claud R. Boland the 18 year-old son of L. R. Boland, died at his residence, 2015 Main street at 10:30 o'clock Sunday night. He seemed to be heart-broken about something and called the name of a young lady he had been going with a great deal, and dropped dead on his bedside. If there is any cost please send me the bill by bearer. The funeral will take place at 4 P. M. Monday evening at the Residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Boland. All friends and relatives are invited to attend. The remains will be interred at Elmwood cemetery."

Mr. L. R. Boland Per H.

"This note bore what purported to be the signature of the bereaved mother. It was accepted in good faith. The young man who brought it answered questions and elaborated the information given in the note.

"It was not known until yesterday that the note was not written by Mrs. Boland and that she knew nothing of it. An investigation indicates that it was all intended as a joke on a young lady. The identity of the young man who came to the office has been established. The offence is one of serious nature in the eyes of the law and it is probable that such an example will be made of these reckless jokes in this particular case as will in future protect the press and public of Columbia from similar outrages."
